BY THIS DAY'S MAIL.

BOSTON, September 7.

FROM CADIZ.

Capt. Plumber from Cadiz sailed July 30—has obligingly shewn to us a copy of a letter which was written by a respectable merchant at Carthagena, to his correspondent at the former place, and received July 28, it states, "I hear the general of marine has received dispatches from the captain general of Valencia, announcing that a vessel had arrived there with news, that the English fleet had overtaken the Grand French Armada, a short distance from Malta, and that when this vessel parted an engagement had just commenced." It was understood at Cadiz, that the proceedings at Rastadt were not conciliatory. The Prussian Envoy is much disgusted with French manners, and he has indicated the approach of consequences not peaceful.—The Imperial ambassador holds the same opinion.

After capt. Plumber came out of Cadiz, he went on board Lord St. Vincent's ship—was well treated, and informed that the admiral had received advice from Don Masserado, that admiral Nelson had defeated the Toulon fleet and taken nine sail of the line, and that the frigate captured by the Sea Horse had on board the plunder of Malta, (she then lay in sight) and that 50 Frenchmen were destroyed in boarding the Sea Horse.

Advice of every transaction almost to the adjournment of Congress, was published in London as early as the 17th of July, and must soon afterwards have reached France. Our next arrival may bring us accounts of their effect in that mis-named Republic.

THE FEVER.

The Selectmen state, that from September 3 to 5, there were three deaths only. Remained sick twenty, four of whom were on the recovery.

Yesterday we heard of two new cases.

Extract of a letter from Algeziras, dated July 6.

As to the case of our own ship (Hunter) I cannot inform you, we have been in daily expectation of getting clear; but now, after being detained near four months, and cleared by the tribunal of Spain, and by the French consul at Cadiz, that same consul yesterday took our sails on shore, and is after getting our rudder unhung. The only talk is about war between France and America, and where it will end, God knows!

FLORENCE, JUNE 1.

The Roman consuls and French commissaries and generals at Rome, have consented to the Pope's remaining in Tuscany; but they have desired that his royal highness would remove him to some part of the Grand Duchy more distant from the confines of the Roman Republic: in consequence of which, his royal highness invited his holiness to take up his abode at the carthusian convent, distant only two miles from his metropolis, where his holiness arrived yesterday evening in tolerable good health, and was received with all the attention and respect due to his rank and character, by his royal highness' special orders, who sent offers of every thing that could be serviceable and magnificent, for his holiness's accommodations.

The Pope would have arrived at this convent some days sooner, had he not been obliged to fly to Sienna, and take refuge in a nobleman's country house, near this city in consequence of a dreadful earthquake which took place there on the 25th ult. which threw down a considerable part of the convent in which his holiness resided.

The earthquake has been attended with fatal consequences, and has been continued by repeated shocks, and trembling of the earth; and even yesterday the earth was occasionaly perceived to move.

Some lives have been lost, and a great number of the inhabitants maimed, and there is not a house in the whole city which has not suffered more or less, and some are actually levelled with the ground. The town is entirely deserted. Those who have not country houses to retire to have made temporary tents and coverings in the adjacent fields, to which they are retired. Even mass is said in a public garden adjoining to the city.

ITALY, JUNE 1.

The Milan Gazette contains a report, that a new insurrection has broken out at Rome, after the departure of the French troops.

At Genoa an insurrection of the populace is greatly apprehended. The mal contents shout publicly "Live St. Mary—Death to the Patriots." Several persons have been arrested at Genoa.

Tranquility is again restored in the vicinity of Perugia. The palace of the knights of Malta at Rome, has been seized, and their effects sold for the benefit of the French republic.

MUNICH, June 5.

The Nuncio of the Holy See resident here, has received we learn the following intelligence:

"The Fernch general St. Cyr, who commands at Rome, wrote some time since to the Grand Duke of Tuscany, that as the troubles which had broken out in Italy, and principally at Perugia, had been occasioned by the Pope, he prayed his highness to take such measures as should prevent his holiness from making any longer stay within his territories. The Grand Duke having declined, it is said, to take any steps in consequence of this demand, the general sent him a second letter, the contents of which resembled a declaration of war. Soon after a detachment of French troops entered Siena, seized the person of the sovereign Pontiff, as well as several cardinals and conveyed them to Leghorn, where a flotilla was ready to receive them, which immediately set sail for Cagliari in Sardinia.

GENOA, June 8.

War between our republic and the King of Sardinia is now nearly declared. It is known that a short time since, about 500 Piedmontese rebels seized the town of Carosio, which is entirely surrounded by our territory. The king of Sardinia after some fruit. less application to our government, for a passage for his troops, thought proper to order 4000 men to march thro' the Ligurian republic and attack the town. The rebels immediately evacuated Carosio, which was taken possession of by the Sardinian troops. Shortly after a battle took place on the Ligurian territory, near Gavi, the commandant of which town fired on the contending parties. The skirmishing continued two days longer, without any decisive advantage on either side. The loss of the Royal troops in killed and wounded was much greater than that of the rebels. This inroad into the territory of the Republic caused the great council to come to the following resolutions.

1st. That the directory should take such measures as should render the Ligurian territory respected.

2d. That all Ligurian citizens should receive notice of the present situation of the Republic with respect to the court of Turin.

3d. That 500,000 livres should be assigned to the directory to enable it to take such measures as would repel any hostile attack of the Piedmontese troops.

The frontiers of the Republic have been in consequence occupied by the troops of the line, volunteers and artillery, and a proclamatian published, addressed to the citizens of the Republic. We are very desirous to know how the French will act in consequence of this affair.

It is said that 7000 French troops have already marched to Alessandria and Novi, to watch the motions of our troops, and those of Sardinia.

Another letter, same date.

Yesterday and to-day several corps of troops marched for the Piedmontese frontiers. Our patriots flatter themselves that they will soon return crowned with laurels, after having dethroned the king of Sardinia; though this latter event is certainly much to be doubted. Some observed, that the French Republic has promised the king of Sardinia an enlargement of his dominions, and that he is the ally of France. They likewise remind us that it was not long since reported, that the French Republic would extend its boundaries to Savona, and even to Genoa. But on the other side, our directory appears to have acted in concert with the agents of France.

It is said that a battle has already taken place between our troops and those of the king of Sardinia.

ADMIRALTY OFFICE, July 14, '98.

Copy of a letter from the right honourable lord Bridport, K.B. to Evan Nepean, esqr. dated on board the Royal George at sea, July 11, 1798.

The inclosed copies of letters will inform their lordships of the taking La Seine, and the loss of his majesty's ship La Pique. On both these events I can add nothing more than to express my satisfaction on this important capture, and real concern for the accidents that have attended it. Captain Milne, with all his officers and people are on board La Seine.

I am, &c. BRIDPORT.

Jason Pertit vs Breton, July 25, 1798.

My LORDS,

On Friday last, at seven A. M. his majesty's squadron under my command, consisting of the ships named in the margin†, gave chace to a frigate of the Saintes, at eleven at night. The Pique brought her to action and continued a running fight, till the Jason passed between the two. At this instant the land near the Point de la Trenche, was seen close on our larboured bow, and before the ship could answer her helm, she took the ground close to the enemy, which we immediately perceived had grounded also, most unfortunately, as the tide rose we hung only forwards, and therefore swung with our stern close to the enemy's broadside, who, although he was dismasted, did not fail to take advantage of his happy position; but a well directed fire was kept up from a few guns abaft, and at half past two she struck. Our opponent, called La Seine, was commanded by le capitaine Brejot, her force 42 guns, eighteen and nine pounders, with cannonades, and 610 men including troops, she sailed from L'Isle de France three months ago bound to L'Oorent.

In the early part of the battle, I had the mortification to be wounded, and was obliged to leave the deck; but my misfortune is palliated by the reflection that the service did not suffer by my absence, for no man could have filled my place with more credit to himself, and benefit to the State than my first lieutenant, Mr. Charles Inglis; whom I beg to recommend in the strongest manner for his bravery, skill, and great exertions.

I come now, my lord, to the painful part of my narrative, which I am necessiated to make more prolix than I otherwise should, from the peculiar circumstances attending the engagement; and I first mention the loss of the Pique, whose officers and crew deserved a better fate. Captain Milne had led her to fight in an officer like manner, but it was his misfortune that the main topmast being carried away, he was obliged to drop a stern. Ardour urged him on to renew the combat, he did not hear me hail him to anchor, and the ship therefore grounded on our off side, near enough to receive the enemy's shot over us, although very awkwardly situated for returning the fire. In the morning every attempt was made to get the ship off, but the Jason was alone successful I therefore, on finding the Pique was bilged, directed the captain to destroy her, and to exert his abilities and activity to save the prize; which he with great difficulty got afloat yesterday evening, after throwing her guns, &c. overboard.

The carnage on board La Seine was very great; 170 men were killed, and about 100 wounded, many of them mortally. I inclose a list of the sufferers on board the Jason; and it is with great concern that among the killed I place the name of Mr. Anthony Richard Robotier, my second Lieutenant, who died fighting gloriously, and by whose fall is lost a most amiable man and excellent officer. Lieutenant Riboleau commanded on the main deck afterwards, and behaved with great spirit, as did Mr. Lockwood, the Master, and lieutenant Symes of the Marines; my other officers of every description behaved vastly well, and the bravery and excellent conduct of the crew deserve much praise.

The Pique was exceedingly shattered in her rigging, and the Jason has not one mast or yard but what is much damaged, nor a shroud nor rope but what is cut. with all the sails torn to pieces. If our ship could have remained in her first position, or our companion could have occupied the situation he wished, the business must have been sooner finished, without so much injury being done aloft. It is but justice to observe that every effort was made on board the Mermaid, during our long chace, to approach the enemy, and I feel much indebted to Captain Newman for having this ship off, as that was the only possible means to save her. So soon as we were afloat, the squadron under Captain Stopford was seen in the offing, and being called in by signal, was of infinite service.

I have the honor to be &c.

CHARLES STIRLING.

[Killed, first Lt. 1 corp. mar. 5 seamen; and 12 wounded.]

The ship Thomas, Brown, of Philadelphia, 24 days from St. Bartholomews, anchored last evening at Fort Johnson.

The schooner Massachusetts, and brig Harriet, mentioned in yesterday's paper amongst the arrivals from the Havanna, were not amongst the vessels which arrived: the Massachusetts did not sail with the fleet.

Aug. 31.

Yesterday arrived the schooner Harriot, Lawson, New-York, 17 days; sloop Hopestill, Bent, New York, 23 days; ship Rebecca, Russell, Malaga, 70 days; schooner Lovely Lass, Sweetzer, Philadelphia, 19 days; ship Thomas, Brown, St. Bartholomews, 25 days

The following information was given to Capt. Doane, by the gentleman who acts as American consul at the Havanna. Two days before he sailed, a French sloop, a privateer, arrived at the Havanna, from a cruise, having on board fourteen American sailors, which the captain detained on board as prisoners; as soon as the consul was informed of it, he made application to the Governor of the Havanna, to have them released; his answer was, that he could not interfere in the affair, as he had no instructions on the subject. These men were detained on board of the sloop, when Capt. Doane left the Havanna.

NORTHUMBERLAND, Sept. 1st.

To the PRINTER.

SIR,

I beg leave, through the channel of your paper, to give what satisfaction I can to many persons in this country, who are alarmed at the publication of an intercepted letter addressed to me by Mr. J. Stone at Paris, and inclosing an other which I was to transmit to M. B. P (which means a Member of the British Parliament) at Kennebeck. They were first printed in England, with a view to render me obnoxious here. Whether they ought to have this effect, let any impartial person judge from the following circumstances.

Mr. John Stone (not the person who was tried for high treason, and acquitted, in England, but his brother) was a member of my congregation at Hackney, and a zealous friend of the American and French revolutions, which sufficiently accounts for his corresponding with me. But I am not answerable for what he, or any other person, may think proper to write to me.

The letter inclosed to me is for Mr. Benjamin Vaughan, formerly a pupil of mine, and son to Mr. Samuel Vaughan, who sometime ago resided in Philadelphia. He, like me, thought it necessary to leave England, and for some time is said to have assumed a feigned name. This he does not do here, and he is a man that any country may be proud to possess; having for ability, knowledge of almost every kind, and the most approved integrity, very few equals. He is well known to, and probably corresponds with, the President, who will smile at the surmises that have been thrown out on the subject. He has fixed his residence at Kennebeck because his family has large property there. If he or I had been a spy in the interest of France, we have made a very strange choice of situations in which to do mischief.

PENNSYLVANIA, ss.

In the Name and by the Authority of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
BY THOMAS MIFFLIN,
Governor of the said Commonwealth,

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, it has been stated to me by the President and Directors of the Bank of Pennsylvania, That on the night of Saturday the first instant, the House now occupied by the said Bank, commonly called Carpenters Hall, was burglariously entered by some villain, or villains unknown, and therefrom a considerable number of Bank Notes of various descriptions and denominations were stolen and carried away: TO THE INTENT that the perpetrator, or perpetrators of so great a crime, and the accessaries thereto, may be discovered and brought to condign punishment, I have deemed it expedient to issue this Proclamation, HEREBY offering and promising a REWARD of ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS to any person, or persons, who shall discover the perpetrator, or perpetrators of the said crime, or any of them, or any accessary thereto, before or after the fact, to be paid on the conviction of all or any of the offenders: AND I do hereby further offer and promise A FREE AND ENTIRE PARDON unto any one of the perpetrators, or accessaries aforesaid of the commission of the said crime, who shall make a full and satisfactory disclosure of all the circumstances relative to the contriving and accomplishing the same, and of the names and places of abode of his or her associates, so that such associates may be apprehended and convicted: AND all the judges, Justices, Sheriffs, Constables, and other Public Officers of this Commonwealth (according to the duties of their respective stations) are hereby required and enjoined to use all lawful means to detect and bring to justice each and every person concerned in contriving, or perpetrating the crime aforesaid.

GIVEN under my hand and the Great Seal of the State, at Germantown, the (L. S.) third day of September, in the year of our Lord, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, and of the Commonwealth the twenty-third.

THOMAS MIFFLIN.

By the Governor:
A. J. DALLAS.
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

HEALTH-OFFICE,
11th September, 1798.

FELLOW-CITIZENS,

OUR address of the 1st inst. was intended to present to your view the deplorable state of our city, and to excite into active exertion the philanthropy and benevolence so eminently characteristic of the citizens of Pennsylvania. The same generous sentiments which you have displayed has influenced the worthy and benevolent citizens of Baltimore; who always alive to the feelings of humanity, have, it appears by the public papers, agreed to a subscription for the relief of our distressed fellow citizens.

We return them all the gratitude and respect to which dispositions so amiable are entitled;—but it becomes our duty publicly to state that a fund has been provided for the purpose, upon the principal of a loan in anticipation of the liberality and justice of our Legislature, which precludes the necessity of donations in money from the humane citizens of our sister states.—Contributions of provisions from our fellow-citizens in the country, as well in New Jersey as in our own State, have been forwarded for the use of the distressed, with a liberality which does honor to the donors.

We flatter ourselves that similar donations will be continued by those generous individuals, who are contiguous to the city, and can with convenience spare a part of their produce for the relief of suffering humanity.

By order of the Board of Managers.
